HONORING

Sheila and Jeff Birmingham

Sheila and I are truly humbled to be honored, alongside the six remarkable advocates, at the 2019 Pull for Kids Classic. I shot in my first Pull for Kids Sporting Clays Classic in the mid 90s and I immediately knew Child Advocates and the children they serve would be in my heart forever. I have been involved with the Pull every year since my first experience and over the years I have served on various boards within the Child Advocates organization. Recently, Sheila decided it was time to act on something which had been tugging on her heartstrings for years and she enrolled in Advocacy University, became an advocate, and is currently working on her first case. I am humbled by the time commitment and the deep passion every advocate puts into hearing and making heard the voices of the children they serve in order to break the vicious cycle of child abuse and neglect. Together our commitment to Child Advocates remains strong as we witness the miracles it provides in the lives of these precious children.

Please join us for a weekend of fun, but more importantly help us raise the much needed funds for Houston's abused and neglected children. We cannot do this without you! It is with great pride we celebrate the 35th anniversary of Child Advocates as your honorees. We look forward to partnering with you as we work to break the cycle of child abuse.

See you there,

Jeff Birmingham

about the Pull for Kids

The Pull for Kids Classic, Child Advocates' largest annual fundraiser, will kick off the weekend with a daytime sporting clays tournament for both individual and corporate teams at the American Shooting Centers. The 'shoot' will include great food, games and fun giveaways. It is sure to be a wonderful time, all while benefiting Child Advocates and 'pulling' for our kids. Saturday evening, grab your party hats and help us celebrate Child Advocates' 35th anniversary at Bayou City Event Center. We will be entertaining you throughout the evening with a delicious dinner, games and music by Satellite that is sure to get you on the dance floor. You will also be able to bid on hundreds of live, big board and silent auction items in a unique and casual atmosphere that remains a Houston favorite. In its 26-year history, the Pull for Kids Classic has raised over $10 million for Harris County's most severely abused and neglected children. With your support, we will raise $775,000 this year, giving Child Advocates the opportunity to serve over 2,500 children in 2019.
