Presents

The Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing:
Protecting Children from Sexual Predators in Positions of Power.

Guest Speakers:
Judy O’Brien, M.A., LPC, LSOTP,
O’Brien Counseling Services, Inc.

Dr. Lawrence Thompson, Jr.,
Director of Therapy and Psychological Services
The Children’s Assessment Center

Denise Oncken, J.D. Chief, Crimes Against Children Division
Harris County District Attorney’s Office

Thursday,
February 2, 2012
2 pm to 5 pm

DePelchin Children’s Center
4950 Memorial Drive ◆ Houston, Texas 77007

RSVP: catf@tcftm.org by January 26th, 2012

Harris County Child Abuse Task Force 2012 Membership Renewal Due!
Only $20.
Membership includes all quarterly trainings and a discount for the April Seminar. ($60 value)

Quarterly trainings for all non-members will now be $10.
(Members of the Task Force will be given priority seating due to space limitations. There is a $10 fee for non-members to attend this training.)
DePelchin Children’s Center
4950 Memorial Drive
Houston, Texas 77007
713.730.2335

From 610 West Loop: Exit Memorial. Go east (toward town) and exit at Shepherd. Turn left and immediately left again, turning west (away from town). Turn right on the first street, which is Sandman. Park in the lot behind the building on your right, in the lot across from the building, or on the street. Enter through the main door, which you can find by following the red brick sidewalk. The receptionist will guide you to the room.

From 45 or 59, north or southbound: Exit 1-10 westbound. Take 1-10 to the Shepherd/Durham exit, and take Durham (which is a one way street going left) to Feagan. Turn right on Feagan to the first street, which is Sandman. Turn left and go to the 3 story building on the left. Park and enter as above.

CEUs will be provided for LPC, LMFT, Social Work, and TCLEOSE.