

Live Auction Rules

- The live Auction will begin and end as announced during the evening.
- The bidder's verbal bid constitutes a legal contract to purchase an item.
- The Auctioneer will acknowledge the winning bidder.
- Group purchases are acceptable, but one person must be responsible for the bidding.
- Decisions of the Auctioneer are final.
- All gift certificates expire May 6, 2018 if not otherwise stated.

Big Board and Silent Auction Rules

- The Big Board and Silent Auction will begin at 7:00 PM and bidding will close approximately 30 minutes after the end of the live auction.
- The official closing will be announced over the public address system at the event.
- Silent Auction bids must be made by bidding on the BidPal App through your own phone or by using one of the IPod provided by BidPal. The minimum bid and the required minimum bid will be specified on the app for each auction item.
- The Big Board bids must be made by verbally notifying the Big Board officials. The Big Board official will record each bid. Bids may be rejected by the Big Board officials if they do not exceed the established minimum bid amounts or required minimum bid increments. The Big Board officials will post each high bid on the board.
- Auction Checkout will be available approximately 30 minutes after the closing of biddings (or as soon as the winning bids are tabulated). Payment in full by cash, check or credit card by the end of the event is required. All sales are final, and all items are sold "as is" or as provided by the donor. Child Advocates, Inc. provides no warranty or guarantee. In the case of the purchase of trips, events, services, etc., please contact the donor within one month of the auction. All scheduling and reservations must be mutually arranged with the donor unless otherwise specified. All travel accommodations are subject to availability and expiration dates and some may be subject to other restrictions by their donors, as specified on the donor form or certificate.
- All gift certificates expire May 6, 2018 if not otherwise stated.
